

HASS Rubric: Intake-to-Placement

What intake-to-placement goals has the organization set?

Beginner

Organization sets goals for in-shelter length of stay for various groups of pets in care such as species and age groups.

Intermediate

Organization sets goals for in-shelter length of stay and expected live release rates for various groups of pets in care such as species, age groups, behavior or medical attributes, and more.

Advanced

Organization sets goals for in-shelter length of stay, expected live release rates, and movement and progress for various groups of pets in care such as species, age groups, behavior or medical attributes, and more.