

HASS Rubric: Lost Pet Reunification

Are Field Officers required to use a microchip scanner?

Intermediate

Field Officer protocols prioritize the use of microchip scanners in the field. If supplies are limited, not all Field Officers may be currently assigned scanners.

Advanced

Field Officer protocols require the use of microchip scanners in the field. All individual Field Officers are assigned scanners as well as receive chargers and backup batteries.