HASS Rubric: Lost Pet Reunification

Are lost pet reunification resources available in multiple languages?

Beginner

Lost pet reunification resources are primarily available in the most common language of the organization's jurisdiction. At least 25% of resources are available in an alternate language aligning with the second most commonly spoken language in your service area. Resources include both digital and printed communications.

Intermediate

Lost pet reunification resources are primarily available in the most common language of the organization's jurisdiction. At least 50% of resources are available in the second most commonly spoken language in your service area. Resources include both digital and printed communications.

Advanced

All lost pet reunification resources are available and accessible in multiple languages most common in your service area, including digital and printed communications.