HASS Rubric: Lost Pet Reunification
Can pet and person records be connected in shelter software?

Due to the resources required to have shelter software established at an organization, this item has an exclusively advanced determination.

Advanced
Pet and person records can be connected through shelter or record management software. The same pet number is used for found pet records and intake records and can be searched to eliminate the accidental creation of duplicate records.