

HASS Rubric: Lost Pet Reunification

Do Field Officers provide resources to help community members reunite found pets?

Beginner

Field officers provide paper or digital resources including basic practices to help community members reunite found pets with their caretakers.

Intermediate

Field officers provide paper or digital resources including best practices to help community members reunite found pets with their caretakers and information on connecting with local lost and found pet social groups or online pages.

Advanced

Field officers provide proactive support and educational materials to help ensure community members are aware of best practices to reunite found pets should they ever need to. Field officers also provide paper or digital resources including best practices and information to connect with local lost and found pet social groups or online pages.