

HASS Rubric: Lost Pet Reunification

Do Field Officers receive Case Management training?

Beginner

Field Officers in leadership positions receive training in case management and crisis intervention. Information is distilled and relayed to relevant staff.

Intermediate

All Field Officers receive training in case management and crisis intervention.

Advanced

All Field Officers receive training in case management and crisis intervention. A Social Worker provides training and support to all staff on a recurring basis.