

HASS Rubric: Lost Pet Reunification

Do protocols reflect an in-field search for caretaker focus?

Beginner

Field Officer protocols prioritize searching the area where a pet is found for a caretaker, including knocking on doors. Impoundment is a last resort.

Intermediate

Field Officer protocols prioritize searching the area where a pet is found for a caretaker, including knocking on doors and transporting pets home if a caretaker is unable to drive. Impoundment is a last resort.